Public Comment: Circe Stumbo, 3839 Cottage Grove Ave. SE, congratulated Supervisor Scheetz for his appointment to the Board. She expressed her appreciation for the county registering against SF 507, an act to prohibit the county and city from having diversity, equity and inclusion programs. She just finished listening to a zoom session about how the medical community is working to do a better job in providing responsive and empathetic services and even medical illustrations so that everyone can be well served. The need is real, and Linn County can truly be leading the nation by continuing to learn about and act in ways that honor and support diversity and equity, accessibility and inclusion. It's hard to imagine that not many other counties or cities (including the city of Cedar Rapids) have registered against this incredibly problematic bill. It really does mean a great deal that Linn County has stepped up. She thanked the Board for using their voice in this important way.

Adjournment at 10:03 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

TODD E. TAYLOR, Linn County Auditor
