Language that is added to the section will be displayed as underlined text and deleted language will be represented as ~~striketrough~~ text.

1. Article IV Development Review Processes and Requirements, Section 107-71 Site plans, Subsection (3) Major site plan requirements

- (3) Major site plan requirements. Whenever this chapter requires submission of a major site plan, the applicant shall submit ~~six one copies~~ electronic copy and one paper copy of a site plan prepared by an engineer, landscape architect, architect or similar licensed professional. A major site plan shall meet the following specifications and show the data listed:

2. Article IV Development Review Processes and Requirements, Section 107-72 Land division processes and requirements, Subsection (2) Major subdivision

(2) Major Subdivision.

- f. Process for review of major subdivision applications. The process below shall be followed in reviewing applications for major subdivisions:

11. Final plat filing requirements. Four copies of the final plat, together with copies of forms and certificates as specified in subsection (2)g of this section, shall be submitted to the planning and development department in bound form, together with an additional two unbound copies of the final plat. Bound copies shall be backed with ~~a nine-inch by 15 1/2-inch~~ blue, top-fold manuscript cover. To be considered by the board of supervisors, a final plat clearly marked "Final Plat" shall meet all of the following requirements:

- g. Required recording of final plat. The final plat with all required documents shall be entered in the proper record books in the office of the county recorder. When so entered, the plat only shall also be entered in the records of the county auditor and the plat shall be of no validity until so filed in both offices. Approval of the final plat by the board of supervisors shall be void if the plat and its proceedings are not recorded by the owner in the office of the county recorder within one year after date of approval, unless, within that time, an extension based upon unusual circumstances is granted by the board of supervisors.

1. Filing document requirements. Required filings with the county recorder shall include all of the following documents:

- (i) Owner's certificate and dedication certificate executed in the form provided by state law, dedicating to the county the title to all property intended for public use, including public roads.
- (ii) Title opinion and a consent to plat signed by the mortgage holder if there is a mortgage or encumbrance on the property as well as a release of all streets, easements, or other areas to be conveyed or dedicated to local government units within which the land is located.
- (iii) Surveyor's certificate.
- (iv) Auditor's certificate.
- (v) Resolution of the planning and zoning commission.
- (vi) Resolution of the board of supervisors.

- (vii) Resolution of approval or waiver of review by applicable municipalities.
- (viii) Treasurer's certificate.
- (ix) Agricultural land use notification.
- (x) Restrictive covenants or deed restrictions, as separate instruments, not combined with any other instrument.
- (xi) ~~Three copies of the surveyor's~~ Twelve original signed plat drawings.
- (xii) Covenant for a secondary road assessment.

3. Article IV Development Review Processes and Requirements, Section 107-72 Land division processes and requirements, Subsection (5) Minor boundary change

(5) Minor boundary change.

- a. Purpose. The purpose of this subsection is to prescribe uniform procedures for review of an adjustment to a common boundary between no more than two adjacent parcels or tracts of land.
- b. Conditions.
 - 1. A minor boundary change shall not create any additional parcels or tracts, and shall not result in the creation of any additional buildable parcels or tracts. A parcel or tract is considered non-buildable if it cannot comply with the provisions of this chapter, including but not limited to the provisions for nonconforming lots and legal lots of record in section 107-49.
 - 2. No new violations of this chapter shall be created by the action.
 - 3. Such division of land shall not be in conflict with any other state or lawful municipal regulations regarding division of land.
 - 4. ~~Any minor boundary change that requires a rezoning or land use map amendment shall go through the minor subdivision process described in subsection (3) of this section.~~

4. Article V General Regulations, Section 107-94 General regulations for structures, Subsection (c) Accessory structures

- (c) Accessory structures. Accessory structures shall meet the following requirements:
 - (1) Attached. Attached accessory structures shall meet all the requirements of this chapter which apply to the principal structure to which they are attached.
 - (2) Detached. Detached accessory structures shall meet all of the following requirements:
 - a. Detached structures shall not exceed the size limitations as per Table 107-94(b)(2).

Table 107-94 Accessory Structure Limitations

Lot Size in Acres	All districts except AG, CNR and MH
1.00 or less	1,200 square feet of floor area

1.01 to 1.99 or less	1,200 1,500 square feet of floor area
2.00 to 4.99	1,800 2,000 square feet of floor area

10.00 or greater	3,600 4,200 square feet of floor area

1. Ground mounted solar panels are exempt from Table 107-94(b)(2) size limitations.

b. In agricultural, CNR and residential zoning districts, and for agricultural and residential uses in the VM Village Mixed-Use District:

1. Maintain corner side yard requirements.
2. Maintain ten feet to any side lot line when the accessory structure is located beside the principal structure; when located behind the principal structure the setback may be reduced to no less than three feet from any side or rear lot line with any overhang not closer than one foot from the lot line.
3. Detached accessory structures may be allowed to the front of the principal structure provided the detached accessory structure maintains the front yard, side yard and corner side yard setbacks for the zoning district where the structure is located. An accessory structure shall be considered to be located in front of the principal structure if any portion of the exterior wall of the accessory structure is closer to the front lot line than the exterior wall of the principal structure.

c. In residential zoning districts, and for agricultural and residential uses in the VM Village Mixed-Use District:

1. On parcels smaller than ~~three~~ one acres in area, no more than one accessory structure may be located in front of the principal structure. Such accessory structure shall not exceed ~~720~~ 864 square feet in size of floor area. This restriction shall not apply to ground mounted solar panels and arrays.

ed. In all other districts. Detached accessory buildings located in any zoning district except residential or agricultural, shall meet all the requirements of this chapter which apply to principal structures in such zoning district.

5. Article VI Specific Development Standards, Section 107-112 Standards for agricultural uses, Subsection (a) Horses and non-commercial livestock on lots in VR, VM, RR or USR zoning districts

(a) ~~Agriculture, horses and other non-commercial livestock on lots in VR, VM, RR or USR zoning districts.~~ On parcels with zoning classifications of VR Village Residential District, VM Village Mixed District, RR1, RR2 or RR3 Rural Residential Districts, or USR Urban Services Residential District, the following standards shall apply to the keeping of horses and other non-commercial livestock:

- (1) Number of animals per lot. Horses and Non-commercial livestock are limited to the maximum animal densities as shown in Table 107-112 below. Density ratios shall not exceed the limits of any single category or any combination thereof. Waste disposal shall comply with state waste disposal requirements. ~~Further, no nuisance conditions shall be created for neighboring land uses.~~

- (2) Juvenile animals. The number of juvenile animals less than six months of age is not limited provided they are offspring to the allowed adult animals.
